- ◆ all of the Product Disclosure Statement - this information is designed to help you understand this insurance and your rights and obligations under it;
- ◆ the Policy Wording part which commences on page 9. It tells you about:

These documents should be read together carefully. It is important that they are kept in a safe place.

Summary of cover and significant benefits and risks

The following is a summary only and does not form part of the terms of your insurance. We give examples of some of the significant benefits and risks but you need to read the Residential Strata Insurance Plan part of this document which sets out the terms and conditions of this insurance to make sure it matches your expectations.

What you are covered for / not covered for

Policy 1 – Insured Property

This Policy covers accidental loss or damage to your insured property (building and common area contents) that occurs during the period of insurance.

This cover also includes additional and special benefits up to specified limits, for example:

- ◆ up to $10,000 for an arson, theft, vandalism or malicious damage conviction (see Special Benefit 4 of Policy 1);
- ◆ fusion of electric motors up to 5kW (see Special Benefit 5 of Policy 1);
- ◆ up to $50,000 for rewriting or reconstructing your records (see Special Benefit 21 of Policy 1);
- ◆ damage to internal paintwork and wallpapering of lots/units in NSW and ACT (see Optional Benefit 1 of Policy 1).

Some events we do not cover include:

- ◆ damage to alterations, additions or extensions to your building when the value of such work exceeds $100,000 (see Special Benefit 3 of Policy 1);
- ◆ damage caused by flood, or by the sea, high water or tidal wave other than if caused by a tsunami (see Exclusions 1a and 1f of Policy 1);
- ◆ damage to retaining walls by storm or rainwater (see Exclusion 1b of Policy 1);
- ◆ damage caused by the invasion of tree or plant roots or the cost of cleaning pipes or drains they block (see Exclusion 1i of Policy 1);

- ◆ damage to your building directly resulting from alterations, additions or renovations where the value of such work exceeds $500,000 unless Our written consent to continue cover has been obtained before the commencement of such work (see Exclusion 1t of Policy 1).

See Policy 1 for full details of covers, limits that apply and how we settle your claim for these covers.

Policy 3 – Voluntary workers

Benefits that are payable to a voluntary worker who sustains bodily injury while engaged in voluntary work or duties for your Body Corporate include:

- ◆ $200,000 for death, or loss of the use of two hands, two feet or two eyes;
- ◆ $100,000 for loss of the use of one hand, one foot or one eye;
- ◆ up to $2,000 a week for lost income if totally disabled from engaging in his/her usual employment or business;
- ◆ up to $1,000 a week for lost income if partially disabled from engaging in his/her usual employment or business;
- ◆ up to $500 a week for domestic assistance if totally disabled from engaging in his/her usual employment or business or usual household duties.

- ◆ intentional self-injury or suicide or any attempt thereat (see Exclusion 2 a of Policy 3).

See Policy 3 for full details of cover, limits that apply and how we settle your claim for this cover.

Policy 8 – Catastrophe insurance

This Policy covers the unexpected increase in the replacement cost of your building following the happening of a catastrophe from an event for which the Insurance Council of Australia issues a catastrophe code.

Other benefits include:

- ◆ extended period of cover for cost of temporary accommodation and loss of rent (see Special Benefit 1 of Policy 8);
- ◆ escalation in cost of temporary accommodation (see Special Benefit 2 of Policy 8);
- ◆ removal and storage of your undamaged insured property (see Special Benefit 3 of Policy 8);
- ◆ cost of evacuation for resident Lot Owners (see Special Benefit 4 of Policy 8).

We do not cover damage from any event that is not claimable under Policy 1 (flood, for example).

See Policy 8 for full details of cover, limits that apply and how we settle your claim for this cover.

Policy 10 – Lot owners' fixtures and fittings

Lot Owners do from time to time replace existing or install additional fixtures and fittings in their lot/unit without the Body Corporate being aware of such improvements.

As a consequence the cost of these improvements may not be included when arriving at the building replacement cost, thus increasing the possibility of under-insurance in the event of a major loss.

This Policy covers the replacement cost of such installations following loss or damage by any Event not excluded under Policy 1 or General exclusions.

See Policy 10 for full details of cover, limits that apply and how we settle your claim for this cover.

Other policies

We can also cover:

- ◆ legal liability for accidental death or bodily injury to other persons as well as accidental damage to other persons property. The event causing liability must occur during the period of insurance (see Policy 2);

- ◆ misappropriation of funds (see Policy 5);
- ◆ legal liability of office holders and committee members of the Body Corporate for any wrongful act they commit. Notification of a claim must be advised during the period of insurance (see Policy 6);
- ◆ breakdown of electrical, electronic and mechanical plant (see Policy 7);
- ◆ cost of professional fees if you are audited by the Australian Tax Office or another government organisation (see Part A of Policy 9);
- ◆ cost of appealing against common property health and safety breaches (see Part B of Policy 9);
- ◆ cost of defending litigation brought against you under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, employment legislation or as owner of your common property other than as covered under Policies 2 and 6 (see Part C of Policy 9).

See the appropriate policies under the Policy Wording part for details of the available cover, conditions, exclusions and limits that apply to them.

Other important information

In addition to the covers and exclusions summarised in the above section, there are a number of terms, conditions and exclusions contained in this PDS that can affect how or whether a claim is paid under this policy.

Please read the Policy Wording part of this document which sets out the exclusions to make sure the cover we provide matches your expectations.

We may also refuse to pay or reduce the amount we pay under a claim:

- ◆ if you do not comply with the cover conditions (please read the Policy Wording part of this document for details of the conditions to make sure you understand your obligations);
- ◆ if you do not comply with the Duty of Disclosure (see the Duty of Disclosure notice below for details); or
- ◆ if you make a fraudulent claim.

We may also cancel your Policy in certain situations permitted by law. For example, if you breach your Duty of Disclosure or a condition of the insurance.

Some important things to remember are:

Keep receipts -You should keep receipts, invoices or other evidence of ownership and value of all property that you insure because, if you make a claim, you may be asked to prove ownership and value in order for us to pay the claim.

Total loss - When your insured property is a total loss and we have paid out the total sum insured, this insurance ceases. If you rebuild or replace your insured property, this requires a new insurance contract commencing at that time with an applicable premium.

Overdue premium - You must pay your premium on time otherwise your insurance may not operate. If you have not paid by the due date or your payment is dishonoured we may cancel the Policy. CHU will do so by providing you with written notice.

Renewing your insurance - When renewing your insurance with us you must advise us of any changes to your claims or insurance history. CHU will notify you in writing of any effect a change may have on your insurance renewal. Please read the Policy Wording part of this document which sets out details of the conditions to make sure you understand your obligations, as these are only some examples.

Monetary limits on the cover

We can insure you up to the amount of the sum insured or other specified limits for your insured property. These amounts are specified in the relevant clauses in the Policy Wording part or on the Schedule.

Covers for Liability to others, Fidelity Guarantee, Office Bearers Legal Liability, Machinery Breakdown, Government Audit Costs and Legal Defence Expenses insure you up to a set limit of liability which is shown on the Schedule.

You need to make sure you are happy with the relevant sum(s) insured and limits. If you do not adequately insure yourself you may have to bear the uninsured proportion of any loss yourself.

For example, if you don't have a sufficient sum insured to replace your insured property at new cost you will bear the shortfall. The cost of demolition and removal of debris from the site, and other costs such as the cost of employing an architect or surveyor, the replacement of other structures such as driveways, roadways, kerbing, above and below ground services should all be included in the sum insured. If you are unsure whether your insured property is insured for the correct amount, you should seek professional advice.

You should also advise CHU of any changes in the details of the information you have given us, otherwise your insurance may not be sufficient. Changes might include alterations to your insured property.

Excesses may apply. See payment of excesses section below.

Payment of excesses

Excesses may also apply to any claim under this insurance.

An excess is an amount you have to pay each time you make a claim. The excesses that are applicable are shown on the Schedule, and/or under the clauses titled 'Excesses' in Policy 1 and 'Excess' in Part C of Policy 9.

An excess will be applied for each incident where a claim is made. We will tell you the amount of any excess when you apply for cover. They may vary according to a number of factors, such as your risk location and your insurance history.

Goods and services tax

The Policy has provisions relating to GST. In summary, they are as follows but please read the provisions in full. They can be found in the Policy Wording part under 'Goods and Services Tax – how it affects any payments we make'.

- ◆ The amount of premium payable by you for this Policy includes an amount on account of the GST on the premium (including any administration fee charged by CHU).
- ◆ The sum insured and other limits of insurance cover shown on your policy documentation are GST inclusive.
- ◆ When We pay a claim, your GST status will determine the maximum amount we pay you.

There may be other taxation implications affecting you, depending upon your own circumstances. We recommend that you seek professional advice.

Applying for cover

Based on the information you provide when applying for this insurance, we may be able to offer cover and terms specific to you. Once we have agreed to cover you we will issue you with a Schedule confirming this, including the following information:

- ◆ the sum insured and situation of your insured property;
- ◆ excess(es) applicable;
- ◆ premium including taxes and charges and any administration fee charged by CHU.

The cost of this insurance

In order to calculate your premium, we take various factors into consideration, including:

- ◆ the sum(s) insured;
- ◆ the address of your insured property;
- ◆ your insurance history;
- ◆ the security features of your insured property.

The premium also includes amounts payable in respect of compulsory government charges including Stamp Duty, GST, any Fire Service Levy (where applicable) and CHU's administration fee (see their Financial Services Guide for details).

When you apply for this insurance, you will be advised of the premium. If you choose to effect cover, the amount will be set out on the Schedule.

21 day cooling off period

If you want to return your insurance after your decision to buy it, you may cancel it and receive a full refund. To do this we must receive your request either in writing or via email within 21 days of you receiving the Schedule.

This cooling off right does not apply if you have made or are entitled to make a claim. Even after the cooling off period ends you still have cancellation rights, however we may deduct certain amounts from any refund (see page 18 for details).

Confirming transactions

You may contact CHU in either writing, email or by phone to confirm any transaction under your insurance if you do not already have the required insurance confirmation details.

Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms. You have this duty until we agree to insure you. You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- ◆ reduces the risk we insure you for;
- ◆ or is common knowledge;
- ◆ or we know or should know as an insurer;
- ◆ or we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to tell us, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

The General Insurance Code of Practice

QBE Australia is a signatory to the General Insurance Code of Practice. The aims of this Code are fully supported by CHU.

The Code aims to:

- ◆ Commit us to high standards of service
- ◆ Promote better, more informed relations between us and you
- ◆ Maintain and promote trust and confidence in the general insurance industry
- ◆ Provide fair and effective mechanisms for the resolution of complaints and disputes between us and you
- ◆ Promote continuous improvement of the general insurance industry through education and training

You can obtain a copy of the Code from your local CHU office or from www.codeofpractice.com.au.

How to make a claim

Please contact CHU to make a claim. They also have an After Hours Emergency Claims Hotline that you can contact on 1800 022 444.

You should advise them as soon as possible of an incident which could lead to a claim.

Having the required documentation and possibly photographs of the items will assist in having your claim assessed and settled. When you make a claim you must:

- ◆ provide details of the incident and when requested complete the claim form we send you;
- ◆ allow us to inspect your insured property and take possession of any damaged item;(s)
- ◆ take all reasonable steps to reduce the damage or loss and prevent further loss or damage;
- ◆ inform the police immediately following theft, vandalism, malicious damage or misappropriation of money or property;
- ◆ not dispose of any damaged items without first seeking our approval; and
- ◆ not get repairs done, except for essential temporary repairs, until we give you authority and we reserve the right to choose the repairer or supplier.

These are only some of the things that you must do if making a claim. Please refer to page 16 which sets out claims information and what you must do if making a claim.

Dispute resolution

If there's something you'd like to talk to us about, or if you'd like to make a complaint, please contact your nearest CHU office and speak to one of our staff. When you make your complaint please provide as much information as possible. Our aim is to resolve all complaints within 15 business days.

If we haven't responded to your complaint within 15 days, or if you're not happy with how we've tried to resolve it, you can ask for your complaint to be escalated for an Internal Dispute Resolution (IDR) review by a Dispute Resolution Specialist. If you're not happy with the final decision, or if we've taken more than 45 days to respond to you from the date you first made your complaint, you can contact the Financial Ombudsman Service Australia (FOS Australia).

FOS Australia is an ASIC approved external dispute resolution body which resolves insurance disputes between consumers and insurers, at no cost to you. QBE is bound by FOS Australia's decisions but you're not. You can contact FOS Australia directly and they'll firstly advise you if your dispute falls within their Terms of Reference. If your dispute doesn't fall within the FOS Australia Terms of Reference, then you may wish to seek independent legal advice.

CHU will provide the contact telephone number and address of FOS upon request.

Updating our Product Disclosure Statement

We may update the information contained in this PDS when necessary. A paper copy of any updated information is available to you at no cost by calling CHU. They will issue you with a new PDS or a supplementary PDS, where the update is to rectify a misleading or deceptive statement or an omission, which is materially adverse from the point of view of a reasonable person deciding whether to obtain or renew this insurance.

Goods and Services Tax – how it affects any payments we make

The amount of premium payable by You for this Policy includes an amount on account of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) on the premium.

When We pay a claim, Your GST status will determine the amount We pay.

When You are:

- a not registered for GST:
We will pay up to the Sum Insured, limit of indemnity or other policy limit including GST.
- b registered for GST:
 - i and We settle direct with the builder, repairer or supplier We will pay up to the Sum Insured, limit of indemnity or other policy limit including GST; or
 - ii when We settle direct with You We will pay up to the Sum Insured, limit of indemnity or other policy limit and where You are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to Your claim We will pay for the GST amount but We will reduce the GST amount We pay by the amount of any Input Tax Credits to which You are or would be entitled.

In these circumstances, the Input Tax Credit may be claimable through Your Business Activity Statement (BAS).

You must advise Us of Your correct Australian Business Number & Taxable Percentage. Any GST liability arising from Your incorrect advice is payable by You.

Where the settlement of Your claim is less than the Sum Insured or the other limits of insurance cover, We will only pay an amount for GST (less Your entitlement for Input Tax Credit) applicable to the settlement. This means that if these amounts are not sufficient to cover Your loss, We will only pay the GST relating to Our settlement of the claim.

GST, Input Tax Credit (ITC), Business Activity Statement (BAS) and Acquisition have the same meaning as given to those expressions in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 and related legislation as amended from time to time. Taxable Percentage is Your entitlement to an Input Tax Credit on Your Premium as a percentage of the total GST on that Premium.

12 Subrogation

In the event of a payment under this Policy to or on Your behalf We will, subject to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, be subrogated to all Your rights of recovery of Legal Defence Expenses against all persons or organisations and You will execute and deliver instruments and papers and do all that is necessary to assist Us in the exercise of such rights.
